1. Philosophy

Six underlying attributes at the heart of Oak’s curriculum and lessons.

Lessons and units are knowledge and vocabulary rich so that pupils build on what they already know to develop powerful knowledge.

Knowledge is sequenced and mapped in a coherent format so that pupils make meaningful connections.

Our flexible curriculum enables schools to tailor Oak’s content to their curriculum and context.

Our curriculum is evidence informed through rigorous application of best practice and the science of learning.

We prioritise creating a diverse curriculum by committing to diversity in teaching and teachers, and the language, texts and media we use, so all pupils feel positively represented.

Creating an accessible curriculum that addresses the needs of all pupils is achieved to accessibility guidelines and requirements.
2. Units

KS1 Art & Design is formed of 4 units and this is the recommended sequence:

2. Why is colour important in art?

Pupils will learn

- Can try out a range of drawing materials and processes and recognise that they have different qualities.
- Can use colour in a drawing to convey emotion.

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings

- Equipment requiring safe usage.

3. Exploring shadows and tone

Pupils will learn

- Can name some of the drawing tools, techniques, and the formal elements (colours, shapes, tones etc.) that they use in making drawings.
- Can explore tone in drawing.

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings

- Equipment requiring safe usage.
4. How can we bring our drawings to life?

Pupils will learn
- Can use drawing materials purposefully to achieve particular characteristics or qualities.
- Can understand how tone creates a sense of three-dimensionality.

2. A world without paint brushes

Pupils will learn
- Can experiment and explore with a wide variety of tools and materials to create different effects in paint.
- Can understand that paint can be made from a variety of ingredients in order to make colours.

Equipment
- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings
- Equipment requiring safe usage.

3. Mixing colours workshop

Pupils will learn
- Can use a range of paint techniques to demonstrate recognition of different qualities and characteristics of the materials.
- Can understand that the medium of paint can be used to explore and visually demonstrate a range of textured surfaces in 2D.

Equipment
- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings
- Equipment requiring safe usage.
4. A modern day cave painting

Pupils will learn

- Can transfer knowledge and understanding of exploratory work, to develop personal ideas on a variety of surfaces and scales.

- Can understand the importance of the whole: to consider the surface as inherent to the finished piece.

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings

- Equipment requiring safe usage.
5. A modern day cave painting: Part 2

Pupils will learn

- Begin to use the language of art connected to painting in discussions, making it meaningful for children’s lived experiences.
- Can talk about their own work, describing the process and beginning to articulate their own thoughts and ideas.

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings

- Equipment requiring safe usage.

2. Exploring printing with found objects

Pupils will learn

- Know that different forms of creative works are made by artists, craftmakers and designers, from all cultures and times.

- When looking at creative work, can express clear preferences and give some reasons for these (for instance, be able to say 'I like that because...')

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings

- Equipment requiring safe usage.
3. Making your own stamps for printmaking

Pupils will learn

- Can use drawing to record ideas and experiences to inform printmaking.
- Can deliberately choose to use particular printmaking techniques for a given purpose.
- Can experiment with stamping to create patterns.

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings

- Equipment requiring safe usage.
Making a collagraph print

Pupils will learn

- Can develop and exercise some care and control over the range of printmaking materials they use (for instance, they do not accept the first mark but seek to refine and improve).

- Can understand the meaning of 'collagraph' and develop a design for one.

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings

- Equipment requiring safe usage.
5. Reviewing and presenting our printmaking work

Pupils will learn

- Can talk about the printmaking materials, techniques and processes they have used, using an appropriate vocabulary (for instance, they know the names of the tools and colours they use).
- Can thoughtfully consider how to display their completed work.

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

2. Exploring joining techniques for sculpture

Pupils will learn

- Can experiment and explore with a wide variety of tools and materials to create different results through exploring sculptural processes.
- Can learn to manipulate a range of materials to create a structure.
- Can learn how to join materials in different ways.

Equipment

- This lesson includes some physical activity and equipment beyond pen, paper or pencil. Please make sure your child is adequately supervised.

Guidance warnings

- Equipment requiring safe usage.

3. Designing and making our own sculpture.

Pupils will learn

- Can begin to develop and use materials and joining techniques in response to stimulus. Children demonstrate a recognition of the qualities and characteristics of the materials.
- Know the terms connected with the process of sculpture: tools, techniques, and elements, for example: texture; relief; construct; edit; form.
- Can create shapes to use in their sculptures.
4. Adapting and reviewing our sculpture work

Pupils will learn
- Can transfer knowledge and understanding of design work to develop skills necessary to work harmoniously together.
- Working to solve problems that occur and show perseverance.
- Can reflect on their own work, and adapt their sculpture by adding colour, texture and pattern to make it more interesting and exciting.

5. Presenting our sculpture work

Pupils will learn
- Can talk about their own work, describing the process, and articulate their own thoughts and ideas with developing confidence.
- Can use the language of art connected to sculpture in their discussions.
- Can gain a sense of audience for their work.

1. Coherence and flexibility
The art, craft and design curriculum for Key Stage 1 covers engaging and age-appropriate content for both year groups. Pupils are introduced to a broad range of knowledge, understanding and skills across 12 areas of making: drawing, painting, printmaking, sculpture, creative craft, ceramics, collage, textiles, photography, installation and site-specific art, digital and new media, design and graphic design.

Each unit, consisting of 5 lessons, can be delivered as a standalone scheme of work to complement schools’ existing provision for art, craft and design education. Although no prior knowledge is required within each area of making, the lessons within each unit are planned for continuity and progression and should therefore be delivered in sequence.

Whilst we recognise that learning can be in, through, about and with art, craft and design, the focus of this curriculum is on intrinsic rather than extrinsic learning – i.e. the stated knowledge, understanding and skills in each lesson’s objectives are specific to the discipline rather than cross-curricular or transdisciplinary. This is a knowledge-rich curriculum, where skills are also underpinned by essential knowledge.

2. Knowledge organisation

Due to the broad scope of the discipline, learning in art, craft and design does not progress in a linear fashion. Any one of the 12 areas of making in the key stage 1 and 2 curriculum could be taught to any age group, with appropriate teacher instruction and support. Pupils’ knowledge, understanding and skills are developed through experience in making, viewing and talking about art, craft and design. Importantly, lesson objectives encompass the productive, critical and cultural dimensions of learning in the discipline.

Units in this curriculum address opportunities for learning in:

- Knowledge and understanding (acquiring and applying knowledge to inform progress)
- Generating ideas (skills of designing & developing Ideas)
- Making (skills of making art, craft and design)
- Evaluating (skills of judgement and evaluation)

Central to this curriculum is an emphasis on drawing, digital processes and sketchbook practice, all of which are interwoven throughout the units to create a spiral curriculum. Drawing is a tool for thinking and as such offers pupils a valuable way of recording their observations, ideas and memories, which inform knowledge acquisition. Digital processes might take the form of internet or app-based research activities, as well as the documentation of practical activities or conversations about art, craft and design through pupil photography, video and audio recordings. Sketchbooks provide a space for the development of work, ‘storing’ knowledge, and offer teachers useful insights into pupils’ learning progress in terms of strengths and areas for development. Importantly, owning a sketchbook and taking responsibility for this can increase pupil autonomy and self-motivation.

As noted above, each unit can be delivered independently of other units.

3. Knowledge selection

The knowledge included within this curriculum demonstrates that art, craft and design is a rich discipline with both practical (i.e., the productive dimension) and academic content (i.e., the critical and cultural dimensions). The national curriculum specifies 3 areas of making that pupils should be taught at Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2 as a basic entitlement: drawing, painting and sculpture – to be complemented by other techniques. This curriculum includes 12 areas of making across the primary age phase, making it a quality curriculum that, as noted above, is knowledge-rich and scaffolds skill-acquisition through guided participation.

As a note of caution, whilst the key stage 1 and 2 curriculum features 12 areas of making, it contains only 1 unit (consisting of 5 lessons) for each of these areas. Taken wholesale, it does not cover every aspect of art, craft and design practice that might be possible or desirable to cover within the primary age range. Ideally, this curriculum is best supplemented by other learning activities both in and out of school, which we suggest includes visits to cultural institutions such as galleries and museums. Additionally, we would like to emphasise the potential for integrating artistic activities and ways of thinking across the primary curriculum to enhance learning in other subjects, such as the use of drawing as a tool for learning.

4. Inclusive and ambitious

This art, craft and design curriculum is inclusive in many ways. Content reflects the broad range of learning possibilities in the discipline across the 12 areas of making, suitably pitched to the age group. Lessons aim to be inclusive for all pupils in terms of interests and needs, with appropriate scaffolding; and the chosen artists, craft makers, architects, designers, and film-makers referred to within each unit reflects the cultural diversity of these creative practitioners to offer inspiration and celebrate difference.

5. Pupil engagement
Art, craft and design, as a primary school subject, is one that encompasses not only the physical skills of making. Children are also required to engage emotionally and socially as well as intellectually. In this way children will be taught the knowledge, skills and concepts that are particular to each of the processes they will encounter on this scheme, using pedagogy that is underpinned by holistic learning methods. Inclusive practice, that is advocated in these lessons, ensures that all units of work and lesson plans are focused on children's interests and experiences, therefore encouraging them to feel committed and enthused to learning in this area of the curriculum.

Children will be introduced to a wide range of creative practitioners in art, craft and design from different times, cultures, and societies. They will engage in multisensory activities that will enable them to build long term memory, and through the teacher's use of open-ended questioning they will develop confidence in their own abilities and understanding of this subject area. Children will be expected to articulate their own learning both through dialogic practice as well personal reflection.

6. Motivation through learning

The units of work and lesson plans are designed to facilitate a deep love of learning in this subject area, and for children to learn to appreciate working with the unknown, creativity and innovation. The units are designed to encourage teachers to enjoy learning alongside their pupils and to celebrate the element of surprise, as well as the individual outcomes that arise as a result. Learning in art, craft and design is a journey, for both pupil and teacher, and these lessons emphasise the joy of visual expression, giving confidence to experiment with processes and ideas, whilst at the same time guiding pupils towards satisfying visual outcomes.

7. A curriculum of quality

This art, craft and design curriculum ensures a breadth of experience, knowledge and skills across the primary age phase. It covers a wide range of processes across the years of a child's life whilst in primary education, making the content accessible and varied. It is linked to the national curriculum, and develops clear progression of skills and concepts throughout the overarching scheme. With pupil progress at its heart, this scheme builds upon and revisits important processes, such as drawing. It utilises key learning opportunities to aid progression, placing Bruner's (1960) spiral curriculum as a framework. The lessons are designed to be both enjoyable and challenging at every level, with expected outcomes as diverse as the children themselves.

8. Additional information about sequence
Units in each year group can be taught in the sequence AB or BA. Furthermore, teachers can elect to deliver units from any age group where they feel the learning content and objectives are appropriate for their class, based on pupils’ prior experience, interests, and ability. Please see the KS2 Art Curriculum Map for more information about the Key Stage 2 Art units.

9. Key stage 1 progress objectives

The tables below give additional information about each progress objective in the key stage 1 art curriculum: generating ideas, making, evaluating, and underpinning knowledge and understanding.

For each progress objective, you can see how that objective is developed across each of the key stage 1 art and design units.
