

Speech and Language Therapy

Humour and Jokes

Lesson number 14 of 14 on Interaction and Communication

Emma Jones

Activity 1 - Funny TV show or Cartoon

Name of Show/Clip:	Name of Show/Clip:	Name of Show/Clip:
What happened?	What happened?	What happened?
Why is it funny?	Why is it funny?	Why is it funny?

Jokes - Knock Knock

Knock-Knock jokes are one of the best types of jokes you can learn.

A Knock Knock joke goes like this:

1. The teller says the phrase 'Knock knock'.
Knock Knock
2. The expectation is the other person says 'who is there?'.
Who's there?
3. The teller then gives a 'name'.
Lena
4. The other person says 'name +who' as if asking for a surname.
Lena who?
5. The teller says something that plays on the words given as the 'name'
Lena a little closer, let me tell you another joke

More Knock Knock Jokes

Joke: Knock, knock Who's there? Annie Annie who? Annie thing you can do I can better!	Joke: Knock, knock Who's there? Ice cream soda Ice cream soda who? Ice scream soda people can hear me!	Joke: Knock, knock Who's there? Alex Alex who? Alex-plain when you open the door!
Humour/Play on words explained:	Humour/Play on words explained:	Humour/Play on words explained:
Joke: Knock, knock Who's there? Adore Adore who? Adore is between you and me so please open up!	Joke: Knock, knock Who's there? I am I am who? Don't you even know who you are?!	Joke: Knock, knock, Who's there? Olive. Olive who? Olive next door. Hi neighbor!
Humour/Play on words explained:	Humour/Play on words explained:	Humour/Play on words explained:

Rules for Jokes

Jokes should be good-natured.

This means they try and avoid topics that might hurt someone else's feelings.

If you are not sure if a joke might hurt someone's feelings you should ask an adult to 'check it'.

If someone doesn't laugh at the joke it might mean they didn't find it funny - and that's ok.

Jokes tend to be funny once or twice but you shouldn't repeat the same joke too many times with the same person.

If you don't understand a joke or why something is funny, it is ok to ask.

You could say... 'Can you explain that to me please?' or 'Can you tell me that again?'

Can you think of anymore?

Humour and Jokes Diary

Date:

We learnt about

When my talking partner

I...

Insert picture

