

Practice Translation: The Tiger Queen

Worksheet

Latin

Mr Furber

Core Vocabulary

1.	bestia	animal	8.	inquit	he/she says
2.	simius	monkey	9.	laudat	he/she praises
3.	laetus	happy	10.	respondet	he/she replies
4.	consumit	he/she eats	11.	non	not
5.	delectat	he/she delights	12.	sed	but
6.	est	he/she is
7.	exit	he/she leaves

Main Task: Translate

'oletne halitus?' tigris inquit. simius tigrem laudat. simius respondet, 'olet sicut cassia.' simius tigrem delectat. tigris est laeta. tigris simium non consumit. tigris simium laudat. simius exit. sed tigris est adhuc esuriens.

Additional Vocabulary

oletne halitus? = does my breath smell?

olet sicut cassia = it smells like cinnamon adhuc = still

esuriens = hungry

Challenge: Translate

*tigris medicum in cavum invitat. tigris inquit, 'regina est invalida.'
medicus inquit, 'quid est remedium?' tigris respondet, 'si tantum regina simium consumit.'*

Additional Vocabulary
medicus/um = doctor	cavum = cave	invalida = ill
remedium = cure	si tantum = if only

Review

Only turn to this section once you have completed the main task(s).

Main Task: Correct your answers.

tigris inquit, 'oletne halitus?' simius tigrem laudat. simius respondet, 'olet sicut cassia.' simius tigrem delectat. tigris est laeta. tigris simium non consumit. tigris simium laudat. simius exit. sed tigris est adhuc esuriens.

The tiger says, 'Does my breath smell?' The monkey praises the tiger. The monkey replies, 'It smells like cinnamon.' The monkey delights the tiger. The tiger is happy. The tiger does not eat the monkey. The tiger praises the monkey. The monkey leaves. But the tiger is still hungry.

