

English

Lesson 1 of 'The Canterbury Tales'

Frame Narrative and Poetic Form

Mr. Posthill

OAK
NATIONAL ACADEMY

Heroic Couplets in 'The Knight's Tale'

Label the rhyming line ends below A, B, C

- 1 - What with his wisdom and his chivalry
- 2 - He gained the realm of Femininity,
- 3 - That was of old time known as Scythia.
- 4 - There wedded he the queen, Hippolyta,
- 5 - And brought her home with him to his country.
- 6 - In glory great and with great pageantry,

Read aloud the lines below, pausing to show the five iambs in each line.

Then label the end of line rhyming syllables A,B,C

1 - And, too, her younger sister, Emily.

2 - And thus, in victory and with melody,

3 - Let I this noble duke to Athens ride

4 - With all his armed host marching at his side.

5 - And truly, were it not too long to hear,

6 - I would have told you fully how, that year,

