

Practice Translation: The Tame Birds and the Wild Birds Worksheet

Latin

Mr Furber

Core Vocabulary

1.	amicus	friend	8.	clamo	I shout
2.	ancilla	female slave	9.	habeo	I have
3.	avis	bird	10.	respondeo	I reply
4.	dominus	master	11.	video	I see
5.	iratus	angry	12.	venio	I come
6.	laetus	happy	13.	et	and
7.	est	he/she is	14.	nunc	now

Main Task: Translate

*aves ferae amicas vident. aves ad rete veniunt. nunc dominus
aves feras habet. avis fera est irata, et clamat: 'nunc propter
vos ancilla sum!' aves solitae respondent: 'dominum laetum habemus potius quam amicas.'*

Additional Vocabulary

fer- = wild

rete = net

propter = because of you (pl)

solitae = tame potius quam = rather than

Review

Only turn to this section once you have completed the main task(s).

Main Task: Correct your answers.

*aves ferae amicas vident. aves ad rete veniunt. nunc dominus
aves feras habet. avis fera est irata, et clamat: 'nunc propter
vos ancilla sum!' aves solitae respondent: 'dominum laetum
habemus potius quam amicas.'*

The wild birds see the friends. The birds come to the net. Now the master has the wild birds. A wild bird is angry and shouts: 'Now because of you (pl), I am a female slave!' The tame birds reply: 'We have a happy master rather than friends.'

