Notes on the staff in treble clef & the keyboard
