

French

Talking about Big Events [2/2]

- Presenting conflicting views

Madame Williams

OAK NATIONAL ACADEMY

[an/en]

[é]

[eu]

Les grands événements peuvent...

| | |
|------------------------|------------------------|
| attirer | to attract |
| la pratique du sport | participation in sport |
| permettre aux gens de | to allow people to |
| unir | to unite |
| les gens | people |
| le monde | world |
| l'ambiance | atmosphere |
| avoir lieu / se passer | to take place |
| rendre | to make / render |
| nuire à | to harm |

The infinitive can also be translated by the gerund.

attirer = to attract AND attracting

| | |
|------------------|-------------------|
| un avantage | an advantage |
| c'est que | is that |
| d'un côté | on one hand |
| en plus | what's more |
| cependant | however |
| un inconvénient | a disadvantage |
| de l'autre côté | on the other hand |
| par ailleurs | in addition |
| il y a du pour | there are pros |
| il y a du contre | there are cons |

Les grands événements peuvent

laisser une empreinte carbone importante leave a significant carbon footprint

rendre la vie plus difficile pour les habitants de la ville make life more difficult for residents of the town

coûter trop cher

cost too much

nuire à l'environnement

harm the environment

Big Events (2/2)

| | |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. On the one hand = | D'un côté |
| 2. On the other hand = | De l'autre côté |
| 3. There are advantages = | Il y a des avantages |
| 4. There are disadvantages = | Il y a des inconvénients |
| 5. There are pros and cons = | Il y a du pour et du contre |

