

Primary Building Understanding: Our World

Following symbol and verbal directions

Katherine Shearer

For this lesson you will need:

- A computer, phone or tablet with access to the internet. Adult supervision is required.

Following symbol and verbal directions

In this lesson we are going to focus on following symbol and verbal directions. It is made to be used alongside 'We're Going on a Lion Hunt', a sensory story by David Axtell. This lesson should be used alongside that resource to extend learning.

3

Adult support will be required.

Getting ready

We are learning about following directions

Getting ready

Adults: Search on the internet for 'Traditional African Music' for music to accompany this resource.

Activity 1

1. Try following these instructions;

Activity 1

1. Try following these instructions;

Activity 1

1. Try following these instructions;

Activity 1

1. Try following these instructions;

Activity 1

1. Try following these instructions;

Activity 1

1. Try following these instructions;

Activity 1

1. Try following these instructions;

Activity 2: following more than one instruction

1. Now try following both of these instructions;

Activity 2: following more than one instruction

1. Try following these instructions;

Activity 3: following three instructions

1. Can you do three?;

Activity 3: following three instructions

1. Can you do three?;

Activity 4: sequencing instructions

1. Can you make your own dance routine? Perhaps you could think of some of your own unique moves, or you could give instructions to somebody else then score their performance!

17

Make it easier

Physically model all of the dance moves and support the learner where needed.

Make it harder

Encourage the learner to use verbal instructions and to sequence and direct their own dance routines.

More ideas

Try putting on a 'Strictly Come Dancing' style show for all the family!

