Lesson 27 of Grammar

Fused Sentences and Comma Splices

Ms Richards

A student has written a story about this picture. Rewrite their story to correct the fused sentences and comma splices.

Jonathan poured hot chocolate from a thermos he poured it into Katie's cup. Anita took a giant bite out of her cheese sandwich she watched as Nia ate her own sandwich. Nathan and James were both roasting marshmallows James was getting cross, he was sat too far aware from the fire for his to roast properly. The fire burned brightly, it kept the group nice and warm in the chilly woods.

Challenge: Extend the story! You could add in more description or write another paragraph explaining what happened next.
